PATROL CASE OF THE YEAR 2005

Officer Shawn Thompson and K9 Bandit, Pensacola Florida Police Department

On October 14, 2006 at 3:38 A.M., Officer Shawn Thompson observed a white Acura, which was reported stolen a week earlier during a car jacking. At the time of the car jacking, the victim described the suspects as three black males, two of whom were armed with handguns.

Officer Thompson observed three black males in the vehicle and attempted to contact them as they pulled into an empty parking lot. The stolen vehicle immediately sped away.

Officer Thompson pursued the vehicle for approximately one mile before the suspects crashed into a parked car. As the suspects bailed out of the vehicle, Officer Thompson and K9 "Bandit" focused on the driver. With Officer Thompson pursuing on foot, and K9 "Bandit" a short distance behind, Officer Thompson observed the suspect reach into his right jacket pocket.

The suspect drew a .25 caliber semiautomatic handgun from his pocket and came to a firing position as he turned toward Officer Thompson. As Officer Thompson was drawing his firearm, K9 "Bandit" apprehended the suspect on the right forearm, knocking him to the ground. When the suspect hit the ground, he lost his grip on the firearm. The suspect immediately started to punch "Bandit" in the head with a closed fist. K9 "Bandit" pulled the suspect away from the handgun as Officer Thompson approached. After a brief struggle, Officer Thompson handcuffed the suspect.

The deployment of "Bandit" on the suspect averted the use of deadly force, and because of Officer Thompson's and "Bandit's" actions, a dangerous felon was removed from the streets.
